

Haybale house: a little gallery of glimpses

100-year-old barn dismantled for lumber & stone

Barn beams provide supporting structure for house

Textures: stone mantle & hardwood entry floor

Textures: hardwood floor made of planked barn wood planks with sawdust grout

Graywater tank greenhouse

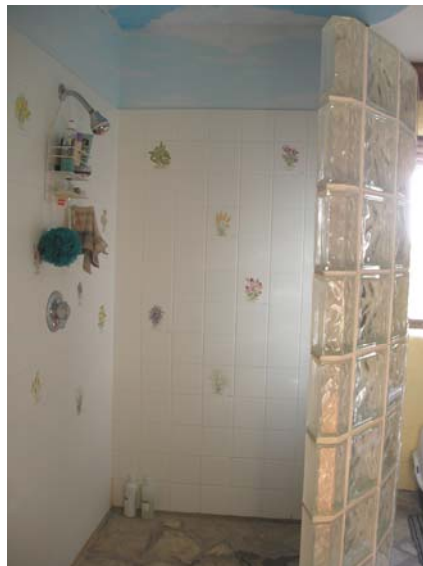

"Truth window" shows Indiagrass bales & construction technique

View up into loft from kitchen

Recycled stone & replumbed hand pump in bathing room

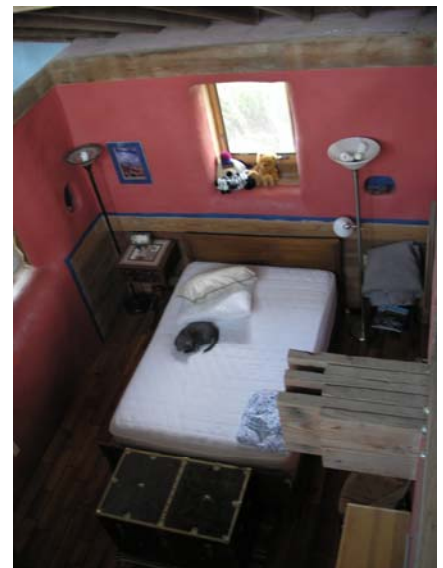

Shower with native stone, glass block & hand painted tiles

Example of hand painted tiles of native wildflowers by Evelyn Powell

View out clerestory windows from writer's perch in the loft

View into guest bedroom from loft

In Case of Fire Break Glass!